

Fenchurch advised Lonmar Global Risks on the sale of a majority stake to Global Risk Partners

Fenchurch is pleased to have acted as financial adviser to Lonmar Global Risks on the sale of a majority stake to Global Risk Partners. Lonmar's management team, led by David Pexton, Chief Executive, will continue to lead the business and retain a significant equity stake following completion of the transaction.

Established in 1977, Lonmar is a leading independent Lloyd's broker based in London. Serving a global client base in over 70 countries, including local intermediaries and insurers, Lonmar provides expertise and access to specialist underwriters and insurance capacity in London and other leading markets, worldwide.

Lonmar specialises in handling large-scale, complex and specialist risks, including Accident & Health, Agencies, Binding Authorities, Bloodstock, Casualty, Fine Art, Specie, Marine, Professions and Property.

Date: April 2016

Transaction Value: Not disclosed

Fenchurch advised:

Counterparty:

