

Fenchurch advised Northhill Capital on acquiring a majority interest in Longview Partners

Fenchurch is pleased to have advised Northhill Capital on the acquisition of a 55% equity interest in Longview Partners.

Longview is a specialist manager of global equities, based in London and Guernsey. It managed $19.5 billion of assets on behalf of institutional investors as at 31 December 2013. Longview will retain day to day operational control and its investment philosophy and process will remain unchanged.

Northhill Capital is an independent, privately held asset management business established in London in 2010 by Jon Little, with substantial financial backing from trusts associated with the Bertarelli Family.

Jon Little, Founding Partner of Northhill Capital commented: "Fenchurch were pivotal in choreographing this transaction. They introduced us to Longview and helped position Northhill Capital as the partner of choice. Their sector expertise helped negotiate a complex transaction involving various stakeholders and structure a partnership that has created an attractive outcome for all parties."

Date: May 2014

Transaction Value: Not disclosed

Fenchurch advised:

Northhill Capital

Counterparty:

LONGVIEW
PARTNERS